

Juliet Russell

Juliet is a music creative - a singer, composer, choir MD and vocal coach whose work spans the music, arts and entertainment industries.

She works with voices to create memorable performances on stage, television and in the community. Juliet excels at guiding people to find their own unique voice and creativity, building confidence, musicality and opportunity. Skilled, passionate and inventive, she aims to bring out the best in every singer she works with.

She has worked with Grammy, MOBO and BRiT award winners and has coached multiple winners of The Voice UK. She believes singing is a powerful tool for joy, confidence, wellbeing, connection and community, supporting people to find their voice and express themselves in ways that feels empowering, liberating and authentic.

She has undertaken post-graduate research in inclusive creative practices to facilitate collaboration in community choirs and is a singing for lung health trainer.
